

CONSTITUTION OF JOURNET

XI'AN JIAOTONG LIVERPOOL UNIVERSITY

Article I. Name of Organization: Journet (cheng xiang she) .

Article II. Statement of Purpose:

Section 1. Our wishes are cognitive iterations and bring a group of partners who are willing to keep improved together. The times we will face will be different from those in the past. Knowledge is no longer for uselessness. The establishment of facilities such as the Internet allows us to instantly connect with any resource in the world, and what limits us is our own. However, one of the major themes of the future— experience— has no way of talking about without knowledge. We hope that Journet is a light on your dark road, she can't lead you to the future, but she can tell you more possibilities, telling you that there is still another way you can go. "The connector itself has value." Journet is such a connector which will help members to learn knowledge here and provide a platform for them to find like-minded friends.

Section 2. To promote ethical leadership and achievement, and to cultivate civic responsibility.
